Gentlemen:-

The holder of the enclosed passport, Prof. Demarchus C. Brown, is about to make a trip abroad and will this time be accompanied by his wife. When his former application was made, he was not married, hence his application for passport did not include the wife. We write to ascertain whether it will be necessary to have a new passport issued, or whether this one can be made to include Mrs. Brown. In the latter event, kindly have the same changed and forward to us, if on the contrary a new application will have to be made, kindly so advise us, returning the enclosed with your answer.

Your immediate reply will greatly oblige

Yours truly,

To The Hon. Richard Olney,
Sec., of State, Washington,
D. C.

I, Frank I. Morton, a Merchant Tailor of Springfield, Missouri, being desirous of going abroad for a temporary sojourn, intending to return to the United States with the purpose of residing and performing the duties of citizenship therein; herewith make application for a passport to England and Africa. My age is thirty-six years, stature five feet, one and one-half inches, forehead broad and high, eyes hazel, nose medium, mouth small, chin medium, hair brown, complexion fair, face round, and in support of this application make the following affidavit: I, Frank I. Morton, who being duly sworn deposes and says. I was an alien and native of Hungaria and was christened Isak Markovits, that after my arrival in the United States and after my naturalization papers were taken out, being desirous of changing my name, I, Frank I. Morton made application in the District Court of Shawnee County, Kansas to have my name changed to Frank I. Morton instead of Isak Markovits, which was done by a judgement and decree of said Court, as will more fully appear in the copy of the decree of said Court hereto attached together with my naturalization papers. I further state that I am the identical person described in the said certificate of naturalization and decree submitted for your inspection, and further deponent says not.

Dear Sir:

An application for a passport was returned here for correction owing to Notary not attaching his seal.

It has been corrected, and I enclose same herewith together with $1 currency in settlement for same.

I intend to sail on the "Furst-Bismarck", Hamburg American Line, Thursday at 11 A. M., and would ask that it be forwarded C/O Steamer at New York, so as to save unnecessary delay. If for any reason you will not be able to mail it in season to get it there, kindly telegraph me tomorrow at my expense, and oblige.

Yours respectfully,
